Morgan stated that she will be resigning as activities chairperson. For several reasons, she felt this was the best decision for her at this time. Adam G. thanked Morgan for her service and support. Further discussion was deferred until new business. Answering Service: Tom T. There are 13 men and 8 women currently. He was also collecting information for handicap access for all meetings. Corrections: John B. They are still looking for men to take meetings into the detention center Sundays at 8pm and Wednesdays at 7pm. Please call John B for more information. A $399.00 order for literature for the men' and women's side was placed due to the generous donations received from the pink can. Reportedly, two meetings on the womens' side did not occur because no one was there to lead the meeting.

It was noted that this reflects poorly on intergroup when this occurs. They are able to take Where and Whens in for woman's corrections.

It was suggested that a meeting of the women volunteers be held to share information and discuss any issues.

District 20: Gene reported that there will be a picnic on June 25, 2011 from 11:00 AM until ? At Black Rock Park. There will be a speaker at the picnic with the topic being Service Work.

Old Business: Adam solicited requests for a new chairperson for the activities committee. It was discussed that focus should also be placed on forming a committee consisting of several regular attendees. Discussion was made as to whether or not to have the Round Robin in June. A commitment was made to hold this event. Angel Z will help as she has much of the information already. If anyone is interested in helping with activities or chairing the committee please contact your intergroup representative or plan on attending the next meeting May 29, 2011 at 4:30pm in Fellowship Hall.

New Business: Elections will be held in June 2011 for the position of intergroup Chairperson, Treasurer, and Secretary. An ad hoc committee was appointed by Adam G to solicit interest in these positions. The committee consists of Tom T, Lindsay F, Steve K, and Mary B. This committee will report back to the intergroup in May with interested nominees. If anyone is interested in serving intergroup as an officer – please contact a member of the committee or your intergroup representative. It was suggested that all committees ask for volunteers to work on the committee and plan to hold regular meetings to discuss ideas.
