OLD BUSINESS – The issue was brought up whether a separate bank account was to be opened for Pink Can money. Extensive conversation was made whether it was part of Intergroup, benefits of a separate account, whether to leave as is, and how a cross-check system would be handled. John B. reported in September of 2011 it was voted to be part of Intergroup, and it was then removed from Treasurer report as of October 2011. Vote was made with 10 people. 6 for leaving it the same, and 3 to open a new account. Therefore, the Pink Can monies will remain in account with Intergroup's money. Also, the cross-check system will be done by bank statement and Pink Can report which is currently submitted monthly.

NEW BUSINESS – Barb C. questioned when the "Where & When's" were last updated/printed. Wayne G. reported he got a updated copy sent to him last month and he posted it on the www.hagerstownaa.org website. Group will decide when copies are to be made, after additional changes are done.
